

Lunchtime series

All concerts in the Elder Hall, North Terrace, 1.10pm - 2.00pm

- Monday 31 March Cellist Zoe Knighton and pianist Amir Farid present a rich selection of cello rarities and discoveries.
- Tuesday 1 April Eugene Friesen (Boston, USA) joins pianist Gemma Turvey to perform original chamber pieces.
- Wednesday 2 April Pei-Jee and Pei Sian Ng, and German sensation Leonard Elschenbroich play a selection of classical and contemporary works.
- Thursday 3 April Li-Wei Qin presents music by Schubert, Rachmaninov and Martinu, with pianist Kristian Chong.
- Friday 4 April Pei-Jee Ng performs the rapturous Saint-Saëns concerto, with the Elder Conservatorium Symphony Orchestra (tickets for Friday Lunchtime Concert sold separately, see details at: <http://music.adelaide.edu.au/elderhall/concerts/lunch/>)

Youth recitals

6.30pm

- Monday 31 March Jack Bailey and Kristian Chong
- Tuesday 1 April James Morley and ANAM Cello Ensemble
- Wednesday 2 April Yelian He and Yasmin Rowe - Y Squared
- Thursday 3 April Margarita Balanas and Ilze Dzerve
- Friday 4 April Louise McKay and Michael Ierace

Tickets are on sale NOW for the 2014 Cello Festival

Telephone 0434 125 774

Online www.adelaidecellofestival.com.au

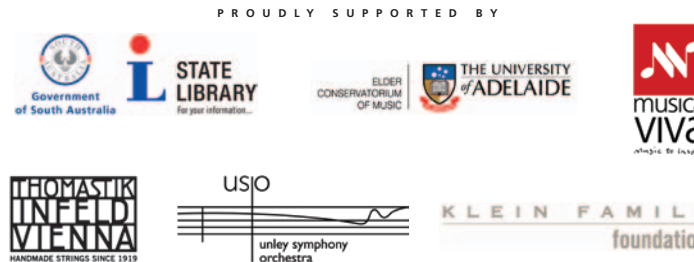

Tickets are also available at the door, one hour prior to each performance, however the Cello Festival greatly appreciates you purchasing tickets in advance where possible!

For any further queries, questions or information, please do not hesitate to contact us:
General telephone: 0434 125 774
Artistic Director, Janis Laurs: 0417 889 996
Email: hello@adelaidecellofestival.com.au
Web: www.adelaidecellofestival.com.au
Mail: Adelaide Cello Festival, GPO Box 1373, Adelaide, SA 5061

program

For nine days, Adelaide becomes the most important place in the world for cellists and for those seduced by the cello's rapturous sound. The Adelaide International Cello Festival makes the city the gathering place for the world's cellists and all lovers of the instrument to indulge together in an exploration of everything that makes the cello great, in an event of true musical inspiration and discovery. Some of the great names among the world's musicians, led by the legendary Lynn Harrell, have accepted invitations to become part of this unique occasion - more than just another festival, it's a gateway to the experience of music at the highest levels of passion, excellence and beauty.

Concert series

The Adelaide International Cello Festival is pleased to present the following amazing, eclectic, enchanting series of cello concerts

Saturday 29 March	2:00pm Latvian Hall Clark Street, Wayville	The Festival kicks off with a recital by the glamorous new star in cello performance, Latvia's Margarita Balanas , in music by Schumann, Bach and a selection of Latvian composers.
	8:00pm Latvian Hall Clark Street, Wayville	Improv - American Rushad Eggleston is shaking up the cello world with his stunning fusion of jazz, bluegrass and folk, based in rock-solid classical technique: this recital promises an eclectic, wild evening of cello magic.
Sunday 30 March	3.00pm Living Arts Centre, Mt Barker	Ngeringa Farm Concert - In this recital, Finnish cello master Marko Ylönen contrasts the rapture of Debussy with the Romantic richness of Grieg (tickets for this concert sold separately, see details at: www.ngeringafarmartsfoundation.com.au).
Monday 31 March	8.00pm Mortlock Wing, State Library	Up Close - The beautiful Mortlock Library is the setting for a sublime personal encounter with the legendary Lynn Harrell , joined by Margarita Balanas , in evocative music by Bach, Ligeti and Vasks.
Tuesday 1 April	8:00pm Elder Hall, North Terrace	Cellissimo - With the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra and a lineup of four sensational cello soloists, Cellissimo encompasses the full emotional range and power of the cello, crowned by the beloved Elgar concerto.
Wednesday 2 April	8:00pm Elder Hall, North Terrace	Celebrity Recital - Cello superstar Lynn Harrell presents an exhilarating performance of great classics by Bach, Beethoven, Prokofiev and Mendelssohn.
Thursday 3 April	7:30pm Adelaide Town Hall	Musica Viva - The Sitkovetsky Trio, with cellist Leonard Elschenbroich , presents Romantic masters Smetana and Tchaikovsky alongside Australia's 'New Romantic', Carl Vine (tickets for this concert sold separately, see details at: www.musicaviva.com.au/).
	10:30 pm St Peter's Cathedral	Late Night at the Cathedral - Indulge yourself in the sublime experience of the complete Bach Suites for solo cello, in the inspirational environs of the Cathedral at night.
Friday 4 April	8:00pm Elder Hall, North Terrace	Concert Improvisation - Led by renowned US musicians Eugene Friesen and Rushad Eggleston , this playful concert brings a variety of musicians together in a concert of fresh solo pieces and outrageous new explorations in cello music-making.
Saturday 5 April	11.30am Elder Hall, North Terrace	Concert - Italy's Renaissance man of cello, Giovanni Sollima , presents a rich recital spanning his own vibrant music and works of baroque Italian masters.
	6:30pm Adelaide Town Hall	ASO Masters 2 - Complete your ' Lynn Harrell Experience' by hearing his performance of Lutoslawski's awesome concerto with the Adelaide Symphony Orchestra (tickets for this concert sold separately, see details at: www.aso.com.au/concerts).
	10:00pm Elder Hall, North Terrace	Jazz and Improv Late Night - The wild musical eclecticism and improvisational brilliance of US star Rushad Eggleston is on total display in this evening of cello-playing like you've never heard before!
Sunday 6 April	11.30am Elder Hall, North Terrace	Cello Extravaganza! - a massed gathering of cellists - students and professionals - in a spectacular celebration of the joy of making music with the cello.
	3:00pm Elder Hall, North Terrace	Unley Symphony Orchestra - Concluding the Festival, Pei-Jee Ng presents Haydn's D Major concerto and brothers Lachlan and Ewen Bramble come together for Brahms's Double Concerto, with the Unley Symphony Orchestra .